

What people are saying about

In order for music to thrive in a live setting, it has to do more than simply jam. Guella represents a new success in live music, complete with clean guitar solos, complex bass lines, driving drum beats, singing keyboards, and soulful lyrics that could stand alone as poetry. Guella provides a study in music that not only gets people moving, but more importantly, makes people stop and listen. There is no doubt that Guella's authenticity will quickly propel them past their peers and secure them a place with music fans looking for something more.

- Perry LaRoque, CEO and founder - North Branch Productions

"Guella's sound truly embodies everything I love about San Francisco: it has a laid-back tone throughout, brings people together, creates a community, and it's totally eclectic. Plus they're hot, which is not necessarily a trait of San Francisco."

- Allison Yochim, Local business owner and fan

"Unbelievable! You guys are incredible! Great job."

- San Francisco Mayor Gavin Newsom, Public Speech for Earth Hour

"Great energy, really positive."

- Anthony Von, Owner, Beale Street Bar and Grill

"I'm excited for more Guella."

- Amy Powell, UCSF Arts and Events Production Coordinator

"I watched some live Guella. Really positive, warm-sounding music. Great players in the band too. Congrats!"

-Chris Peck, Local Musician
